

David Kenny

---

- Introduction
- Heritage Sector Project Manager. Professional background in archaeology, working cross-domain with museums, libraries, arts and archives. Seeking similar on a consultancy or employed basis.
  - Focussed on modernisation, ICT strategies, content management, system specification and integration, digital preservation, web access and e-learning.
  - Wide experience, knowledge and excellent working relationships with heritage sector and ICT industry partners, locally, regionally and nationally.
  - Personal Qualities:-
    - Innovator contributing ideas and enthusiasm;
    - Logical, analytical problem solver, paying attention to detail;
    - Team player, adaptable, with strong communication skills (spoken and written).

Experience

2004-

Consultant

Independent

- Clients include: Access to Mineral Heritage Project (www.mineral.org.uk)

1999–2004

Cambridgeshire County Council Heritage Services

FenPast Project Manager

- Delivered FenPast – A Virtual Museum of the Cambridgeshire Fen (www.fenpast.info). Digitisation of 5000 images, delivered using industry standard Content Management System and web editor.
- Established and managed in-house digitisation facility serving cultural sector clients. High quality photography, scanning and content management services.
- Regional contributions to East of England Sense of Place consortium (www.senseofplaceeast.org.uk) and EECLAIM Portal (www.source-east.org) and regional broadband consortium content projects
- ICT strategy for Heritage Services; CCC Historic OS Map digitisation project; database and modernisation projects addressing issues of accessibility and resource sharing.

1984–1999

A range of archaeological employers in various locations

Professional Archaeologist

- Employed in supervisory roles since 1993
- Key Skills: archaeological project supervision, survey, excavation and recording. Research, report production, G.I.S. and database management. Recording systems and site manuals; public relations; presentation to professional and public audiences.

1990–1992

Upline Expeditions, Sierra Leone, West Africa

Managing Director

- Established an adventure tour company specialising in environmental, cultural and historical tourism.
- Responsible for day-to-day running of the business, research of new routes and destinations. Liaison with tourist board and government ministries, local and international travel agents and tour operators. Production of promotional material, media and advertising. Staff recruitment and training. Leading tours and expeditions.

Education

- 1995–1999 University of Bradford
- BSc Archaeology (four year degree including professional secondment).
- Graduated with 2:1

Interests

Walking, visiting museums and sites of archaeological and historical interest, travel, photography, reading, music, cooking.