

Peter J. McKinney

12/10/75

---

Employment

- Nov '01-present: Projects Coordinator/HATII Teaching Associate: Humanities Advanced Technology and Information Institute (HATII), Glasgow Univ.
- ◆ Coordination of 1.2 Million Euro European Commission funded project;
  - ◆ Financial and work reporting to Commission;
  - ◆ Coordination of work across four project partners;
  - ◆ Quality assurance of output;
  - ◆ Lecturer: Investigating Cyberspace Honours course;
  - ◆ Lecturer: Cultural Heritage Informatics MSc Module.
- Aug '00-Nov '01: Research Assistant: Humanities Advanced Technology and Information Institute (HATII), Glasgow Univ.
- ◆ NINCH project researcher/co-author;
  - ◆ Tutor: Investigating Cyberspace Honours course;
  - ◆ Tutor: MSc Cultural Heritage Computing;
  - ◆ Tutor: Level 1 Humanities Computing;
  - ◆ Tutor/Administration: Digitisation Summer School 2000, 2001.
  - ◆ PATOIS Project. Author of a package of online-teaching resources for Archaeologists. Contracted to Archaeology Data Service, York.
  - ◆ Web-page design, creation, and maintenance.
- Sept '00 - May '01 Special Consultant: Scottish Webmapping Pilot Project
- ◆ Contracted by Jura Consultancy and Craigforth HCAS Ltd. to research viability of central web portal for Government data;
  - ◆ Creation of feasibility reports on charging structures and data integrity.
  - ◆ Resulted in Scottish Homes 'Cost Recovery Policy and arrangements for Webmapping Initiative' 2001.
- Oct '98-May '00: Research Assistant: Prof. Samuel K. Cohn Jr., Dept. of History, Glasgow Univ.
- ◆ Database entry from fourteenth century Latin manuscripts, and modern translations;
  - ◆ Coding to set standards and redefining as necessary.
- Oct '98-Sept '99: Digital Document Editor: Colin Ross Malone Ltd.
- ◆ On-line editing of vital technical documents for the NHS Engineering and Environment Forum;
  - ◆ Recreating complex equations, tables and diagrams.

Education

- Oct '98 - May '00: Ph.D. (discontinued) 'Dissecting Disease: Plague in Italy 1348-1450'.
(Converted to full time in Oct. 1999. ESRC funded.)
- Oct '97 - Sept '98: M.Phil. History and Computing, Univ. of Glasgow, (ESRC funded).
With emphasis on the History of Medicine from the 18th to 20th centuries. Distinction received for thesis: 'Dissecting Plague'.
- 1993 - 1997: M.A. (Joint Hons., English and History), Univ. of Glasgow - 2:i.
Specialising in the 'Black Death in Italy' (1st class mark), 'Renaissance Literature', 'Literary theory', and 'Early Modern Scottish History'.

Achievements

- Publications*
- ◆ Ross, S., I. Anderson, C. Duffy, M. Economou, A. Gow, P. McKinney (2003), Guide to Good Practice in the Digital Representation of Cultural Heritage Materials,
  - ◆ Fernie, K.M., W. Kilbride, P. McKinney, & J. Richards (2002) 'Contexts of Learning: The PATOIS project and Internet-based teaching and learning in Higher Education" in Internet Archaeology 12.
  - ◆ Fernie; K.M., W. Kilbride; P. McKinney; & J. Richards (2002), 'PATOIS: Information architectures, learning, and teaching for the historic environment', Vine, 32:1.
  - ◆ Scottish Homes, 'Cost Recovery Policy and arrangements for Webmapping Initiative' 2001.
- Papers*
- ◆ P. McKinney, R. Sharp, S. Ross, 'The visual text. The experiences of collaborative creation of hypertext fiction', Visual Knowledges, Edinburgh, September, 2003.
  - ◆ S. Ross, P. McKinney, M. Greenan, 'Cross Sectoral Development of Digital Preservation Strategies', Preservation of Electronic Records: New Knowledge and Decision-making September, 2003 Ottawa.
  - ◆ P. McKinney, 'The PATOIS Project: Creating an Electronic Teaching Resource for Archaeologists', The Humanities Computing Curriculum, Nanaimo, Canada, November, 2001.

HOME

Flat G2, 789 Dumbarton Road
Glasgow, G11 6NA

EMAIL: P.McKinney@hatii.arts.gla.ac.uk

WORK

HATII, George Service House
11 University Gardens
University of Glasgow
Glasgow, G20 8QQ
0141 330 4568